* Printing uses pigment fine art inks with longevity of 200-400 years depending on how it is displayed according to Wilhelm Imaging Research. All prints are rolled but flatten when framed. Traditional darkroom prints start from £500.

* Gallery and museum quality Baryta paper is used for all colour and black prints unless requested otherwise.

* All prints are unframed unless requested otherwise. Border or borderless printing is available.

* Postage is UK priced. International postage is available on request.

* For larger bespoke jobs the client is advised to sit (in person or remotely) on the post production and processing of the works. A large selection of paper is available for larger jobs (30 + prints) from fine art, etching, Japanese to rag, baryta, art board, canvas and silk.

* Discounts available for large orders and charities.
